

Filmmakers at the Center Teaching Assistant Internship for Pittsburgh Filmmakers Students

Pittsburgh Filmmakers students are invited to apply for paid positions as teaching assistants for summer media arts camps in the Filmmakers at the Center program at Pittsburgh Center for the Arts.

Applicants must be at least 18 years old and currently enrolled in Pittsburgh Filmmakers School of Film, Photography and Digital Media.

Successful applicants will have basic knowledge of one or more of the following: Darkroom Photography, Digital Photography, Video Production, Animation and Final Cut Express editing software.

You must be able to work Monday through Friday 9am – noon or 12:30pm – 3:30pm.

Qualified applicants will be required to attend a two-hour orientation session at Pittsburgh Center for the Arts. Upon acceptance into the TA internship you will be required to submit a PA criminal background check (fees payable by applicant).

Application Deadline April 10 2009, 5pm.

If you qualify please complete the application below:

Name:

Address:

e mail:

Phone number:

Please list classes (and the Instructor) you have taken at Pittsburgh Filmmakers:

Please list any other classes or experience related to media:

Please list any other related experience (previous experience teaching, working with children, etc.):

Thank you for your interest. If you are accepted into the internship you will be notified by April 17th.